Stanford University, California.

Jan. 13th, 1915.

Dr. R. A. Falconer,

University of Toronto,

Toronto, Canada.

Dear Dr. Falconer:

Let me congratulate you on your brave stand for justice toward your German Professors, as reported in our daily press. I have no sympathy whatever with the German government or its attitude toward Belgium, but I do not think that lack of sympathy ought to be taken out on the harmless teachers who have come away to a land of freedom, and whose sympathies are sorely torn.

Very truly yours,

AMC

David Starr Jordan